

SHINY MINERAL COLLECTION BY OKIA ▶

The new collection from Okia takes inspiration from the idea and the feeling of 'gold' sand - sand that glistens under the sun.

All features of this natural element - lightness, softness and subtle tone - have been carefully transferred on the acetate base, resulting in a unique textured design. The temples of the new frames exhibit refined wavy patterns, inspired by the quiet and peaceful atmosphere of a beach.

PERSOL 2014 EYE-WEAR COLLECTION : MODERN, YET VINTAGE ▶

This summer, Persol launches 'Vintage Celebration', with new colours joining those selected from its historical archive. Along with the classic shades like, Virginia tobacco, coffee and sienna, there are a number of extra shades inspired by the 60s, emulating the mineral world. Obsidian, cobalt, garnet and amber, enhance the look of the new Persol women's and men's models. 'Contrast' is the keyword that defines the new collection.

POLICE 2014 SUNGLASSES COLLECTION ▶

The new collection showcases unique interpretations of old codes for a truly timeless yet modern range, presenting evocative signature styles from Police's 30 year presence.

Three decades come together in this modern day retrospective collection, that is reflective of the decades the brand has lived and grown through – the Eighties, the Nineties and the Noughties. Each style presented in the collection is distinguished by the three different moments, identified with various stages in the brand's rise to success.

CHOPARD'S EXTRAVAGANZA SUNGLASSES COLLECTION ▶

Rich and glamorous as always, Chopard once again offers a unique and chic style with the Extravaganza sunglasses.

The wide metal front of these sunglasses feature a butterfly shape with a vintage echo. The patterns on the front piece reflect the rays of the sun, and the contrasting combination of matte and shiny metal is decorated with crystals, akin to small stars. The acetate temples are embellished with the Chopard logo.
